Call for Papers

The Sixteenth Hume Conference will be held jointly with the British Society for the History of Philosophy at the University of Lancaster from August 21 to August 24, 1989, as part of the university's Silver Jubilee Celebrations. The organizing committee is particularly interested in receiving papers which relate issues in Hume's thought to intellectual developments in Britain and Europe in the eighteenth century, or which relate Hume to other personalities in the history of thought. Papers, of publishable quality, should be a minimum of twenty-five and a maximum of forty minutes reading length with self-references eliminated for blind refereeing. Three copies, postmarked not later than October 31, 1988, should be sent to Professor Dorothy Coleman, Department of Philosophy, Bowdoin College, Brunswick, ME 04011, telephone (207) 725-3753.

Call for Manuscripts

Brill's Studies in Epistemology, Psychology, and Psychiatry is devoted to the publication of recent philosophical works in these disciplines and, especially, in the areas in which these disciplines intersect. Such works may be of contemporary or historical interest, and of theoretical or practical significance. But they are related in their treatment of philosophical issues and problems pertaining to our understanding of the human mind, its acquisition, validation, and use of knowledge, and the conditions under which such acquisition, validation, and use are or should be regarded as rational. Manuscripts should be sent to: E. J. Brill, attention Elisabeth Erdman, P.O.B. 9000, 2300 PA Leiden, The Netherlands.
