

115th APSA Annual Meeting & Exhibition

Washington, DC

August 29–September 1, 2019

Populism and Privilege

Join APSA for the 115th Annual Meeting to address the latest scholarship in political science while exploring the theme, “Populism and Privilege.” APSA and the 2019 program chairs Amel Ahmed, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, and Christopher Sebastian Parker, University of Washington, look forward to your participation in panels and sessions prepared by APSA’s 57 divisions and numerous related groups at the 2019 meeting.

LOCATION

The 2019 APSA Annual Meeting will take place in Washington, DC from August 29 to September 1, 2019 at the Marriott Wardman Park, Omni Shoreham, and Washington Hilton. Be sure to book your APSA hotel early to take advantage of the group rate. See more: <https://connect.apsanet.org/apsa2019/housing/>.

REGISTRATION

Registration is now live! Early bird registration closes on July 9, 2019. Registrations includes access to all panels from Thursday to Sunday (including plenaries and breaking news panels), a complimentary bag and lanyard, access to the opening reception on Thursday night, access to section business meetings and receptions, access to the Exhibit Hall and iPosters, and access to the eJobs Placement Service and the TLC at APSA mini-conference after additional sign-up. For more information, visit <https://connect.apsanet.org/apsa2019/>.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Conference sessions are developed by APSA sections, divisions, and related groups. The preliminary program will be available at the end of May. In addition to the educational sessions, meeting highlights will include the presidential address by Rogers M. Smith, University of Pennsylvania; the opening reception; career placement; the APSA awards ceremony; APSA section and partner meetings and receptions; and the APSA exhibit hall. See the preliminary schedule-at-a-glance: <https://connect.apsanet.org/apsa2019/schedule-at-a-glance-2/>.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The APSA annual meeting and related regional political science meetings are convened for the purposes of professional development and scholarly and educational interchange in the spirit of free inquiry and free expression. Harassment of colleagues, students, or other conference participants undermines the principle of equity at the heart of these professional fora and is inconsistent with the principles of free inquiry and free expression. Consequently, harassment is considered by APSA to be a serious form of professional misconduct. Read the full policy: <https://connect.apsanet.org/apsa2019/code-of-conduct/>.

TRAVEL GRANTS

APSA provides travel grants to assist some members in attending the annual meeting. APSA members who are US graduate students, international graduate students studying in the US, unemployed, or international scholars are eligible to apply. If selected, recipients must pre-register for the APSA Annual Meeting to be able to receive travel grants. For more information visit: <https://connect.apsanet.org/apsa2018/travel-grants.> ■

