- Commentaries by Russian lawyers.
- Overviews by Western international law specialists.

When Thomas H. Reynolds, associate and foreign law librarian at the University of California at Berkeley School of Law, reviewed several of the available works that update and explain today's Russian law, he had this to say* about Shepard's Business and Commercial Laws of Russia...

"masterful structure"
"pinpointed and relevantly positioned discussions"
"the entire compilation is carefully thought out"
"the most comprehensive"
"outstanding in the field"
"first choice"

45550-2 Paperback $39.95 / £24.95

Democracy in International Law

James Crawford

This inaugural lecture examines the ways in which international law may or may not underwrite democratic principles, a subject that has increased greatly in significance in the post-Cold War world search for a "New World Order."

46835-3 Paperback $7.95 / £4.95

European Community Law and National Law: Cases on Their Relationship

Andrew Oppenheimer, Editor

This is the first casebook devoted entirely to the relationship between European Community law and the national laws of the Member States. It contains some ninety decisions of both the Community's Court of Justice and the national courts of the twelve Member States, translated into English wherever necessary. Its ease of reference, with concise summaries, key-word headings preceding every case, and an alphabetical digest, makes the volume both a comprehensive reference work and a detailed introduction to the working relationship between Community law and national law.

47296-2 Hardback about $225.00 / £125

Justice in International Law

Selected Writings of

Judge Stephen M. Schwebel
Stephen M. Schwebel

Judge Stephen M. Schwebel has been a highly-respected member of the International Court of Justice since 1981. This volume brings together thirty-six of his legal articles and commentaries of continuing interest.

46284-3 Hardback $145.00 / £80.00

The International Law on Foreign Investment

M. Sornarajah

This book contains a survey of the Public International Law applicable to the protection of foreign investment. It examines the different techniques that have been adopted by various States for attracting foreign investment as well as for ensuring that foreign investment serves their economic objectives.

46528-1 Hardback $100.00 / £80

The Refugees Convention, 1951

The Travaux Préparatoires Analysed with a Commentary by Dr. Paul Weis
Paul Weis

This book provides the first authoritative commentary on Articles 2-37, in which the rights of refugees were also enshrined in 1951. Both a commentator on the travaux préparatoires and a former refugee, Paul Weis' direct participation in the process that led to the adoption of the Convention by the United Nations in 1951 has enabled him to provide an invaluable guide to the understanding of the text.

47295-4 Hardback about $74.95 / £50

Regional Peacekeeping and International Enforcement: The Liberian Crisis

Marc Weller, Editor

This book reproduces significant documents, many of which are not otherwise available, including statements of the parties to the conflict, official documents emanating from ECOWAS detailing its peace-keeping efforts, and materials relating to the involvement of the United Nations and humanitarian organizations in the conflict. A substantive introduction provides a detailed analysis of the legal issues raised by this controversial operation.
