Nineteenth-Century Music Review

Editor

Bennett Zon, Durham University, UK

Nineteenth-Century Music Review aims to locate music within the widest possible framework of intellectual activity pertaining to the long nineteenth century (c.1789–1914). It particularly welcomes interdisciplinary scholarship that explores music within the context of other artistic and scientific discourses. Articles with fine visual or iconographic content are encouraged, as are those rich in musically illustrative material. Articles accepted for publication will reflect a diversity of critical viewpoints.

All material submitted for consideration will receive open-minded editorial attention, and works, once accepted for peer review, will proceed anonymously to at least two readers (one from the editorial board, the other external to it). Books and music will be reviewed extensively in each issue with the particular aim of extending awareness of music literature into extra-musical disciplines.

Theatre Research International

Published for the International Federation for Theatre Research

Editors

Paul Rae, University of Melbourne, Australia

Fintan Walsh, Birkbeck, University of London, UK

Theatre Research International publishes articles on theatre practices from all continents in their aesthetic, social, cultural, and historical contexts, their relationship to other media of representation, and to other fields of inquiry. The journal seeks to reflect the evolving diversity of existing as well as emerging critical idioms of theatre and performance studies, prevalent in the scholarship of differing inter-cultural and world contexts. The journal also publishes a book review section, reflecting new research in the field.

Theatre Survey

Published for the American Society for Theatre Research

Editor

Harvey Young, Northwestern University, USA

Theatre Survey is chartered by the American Society for Theatre Research as a theatre history journal. Published three times a year, Theatre Survey provides rigorous historical and theoretical studies of performance across all periods, cultures, and methodologies; letters to the Editor; book reviews; lists of books received; and essays on new theatrical resources and exhibits. Recent issues have included position-pieces on theatre history and historiography in the New Millennium; and the subjects of other articles have ranged from postmodern Shakespearean production (on stage and in film) to the Kabuki theatre; from medieval performance to the New Orleans Mardi Gras; and from issues of race, class, and colonialism in performance to studies of John Rich's Covent Garden account books.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Submissions to the journal should be sent as Word file attachments to the editors at coj.editorial@cambridge.org.

If size of files is a concern at initial submission, contributors should consult with the editors by emailing them at the same address.

Books for review should be sent to:

Ellen Lockhart
Faculty of Music
Edward Johnson Building
80 Queen's Park
Toronto ON
M5S 2C5
Canada

Articles should typically be between 8,000 and 12,000 words; authors proposing longer or shorter submissions should seek the advice of the editors.

Files should be double spaced throughout (including notes, etc.). Punctuation should follow standard British practice. Notes should be numbered consecutively. Italic and bold fonts can be used; right margins should be unjustified. An abstract should be written to start the paper. An author biography of about 6 lines must also be supplied.

For further information, including a detailed style guide, please consult the Instructions for Contributors: assets.cambridge.org/OPR/OPR\_ifc.pdf

Music examples and photographs should be scanned at 300dpi, and supplied in separate files.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their typescript. Full details of the source and the full address of the copyright holder, if this differs, should be provided.

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can be reached without delay and are able to return the corrected proofs within three days of receipt.
