CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions are invited from all over the world, and especially from scholars working in African universities. Articles written in languages other than English will be considered on their merits, and where necessary translation will be arranged. The average length suggested is 3,000 to 6,000 words, with occasional exceptions of up to 10,000 words. Notes on centres of African studies, research projects, and reports of recent conferences are also welcome.

All correspondence and contributions should be addressed to

DAVID & HELEN KIMBLE,
THE EDITORS, THE JOURNAL OF MODERN AFRICAN STUDIES,
at either CAFRAD, B.P. 310, TANGER, MAROC, or UNIVERSITY PRESS, CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND.

Each contributor will receive a copy of the number and 25 offprints of his article free of charge.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Subscriptions (55s. net per annual volume of four parts, post free) are payable in advance, and may be sent to any bookseller, or to Cambridge University Press, Bentley House, 200 Euston Road, London, N.W. 1. Subscribers in the U.S.A. should send their subscriptions ($9.50 per volume) to Cambridge University Press, American Branch, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022.

Party Transformation and Economic Development

HENRY BIENEN

Henry Bienen's concern in this detailed study of the relationship between political and economic development in an African country is to make the data relevant for the comparative study of politics in new states. His focus is on the organization and operation of the ruling party, the Tanganyika African National Union, as it interacts with the economy it undertakes to transform.

Published for the Center of International Studies, Princeton University. $11.50

The Demography of Tropical Africa

W. BRASS, A. J. COALE, P. DEMENY, D. F. HEISEL,
F. LORIMER, A. ROMANIUK, and E. VAN DE WALLE

This first modern treatise on the demography of sub-Saharan Africa contains up-to-date materials on age and sex composition, fertility, and mortality. Evidence is described in critical detail, methods of analysis are presented in full, and the reader is given the basis for judging the quality of the estimates. Editorially sponsored by the Office of Population Research, Princeton University. graphs, tables $15.00

Political Protest in the Congo

The 'Parti Solidaire Africain' During the Struggle for Independence

HERBERT WEISS

Drawing upon personal observations as well as upon official documents, Herbert Weiss presents the first detailed study of the PSA. He describes the growth of political parties in the Congo between 1957 and 1960, gives a history of the PSA, and discusses the evolution of anti-colonial protest in the Kwango-Kwilu area of the Congo.

The Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace

STANFORD UNIVERSITY • STANFORD, CALIFORNIA

Burden of Empire

An Appraisal of Western Colonialism in Africa South of the Sahara

L. H. Gann and Peter Duignan. A bold reassessment of African history and Western imperialism. Offers a valuable corrective to recent misconceptions that have blurred many political opinions about Africa's past, present, and future. $8.50

Political Leadership in Africa

Victor T. LeVine. The first comprehensive study focused on the elite generational conflict in Africa—a political phenomenon hitherto little explored, yet largely responsible for the continuing turbulence in the newly independent African states. $3.50

African Opposition in South Africa

Edward Feit. This revealing analysis probes the failure of the African National Congress in two of its major resistance campaigns against a determined and well equipped minority in the Union of South Africa. $7.50

The Emerging Physician

A Sociological Approach to the Development of a Congolese Medical Profession

Willy De Craemer and Renée C. Fox. Provides a valuable insight into the social complexities and the political implications engendered by the evolution of a new, native elite class in what was once colonial Africa. $3.00

United States and Canadian Publications and Theses on Africa in 1965

The fifth volume in the series of annual African bibliographies. Volumes for 1961 through 1964 are again available. Each lists works by topic and country, and contains an author index. $6.00

The Myth of "Mau Mau"

Nationalism in Kenya

Carl G. Rosberg, Jr. and John Nottingham. "... the best account to date of the origins and rise of nationalism in Kenya and indispensable to any serious student."—N.Y. Times Book Review. "... this book should be a standard scholarly text for years."—Venture $7.50

Handbook of American Resources for African Studies

Peter Duignan. This invaluable research tool calls attention to the extensive but scattered source materials reflecting American involvement in Africa which are available in a variety of library, archival and manuscript materials, and to art and ethnographic collections in the United States. $6.00

The Treason Trial in South Africa

A Guide to the Microfilm Record of the Trial

Thomas Karis. "This Guide represents a valuable study of the South African nationalists' trial: it is in fact a veritable introduction to the modern history of that country."—Bulletin des Bibliothèques de France $3.00

German Africa

John Bridgman and David E. Clarke. "In brief, this work is uncontestedly useful as a research tool for exploring the African holdings of the Hoover Institution as well as a general guide for the study of German colonial problems and the African territories which at one time were colonized by Germany."—Bulletin des Bibliothèques de France $3.00

Americans in Africa 1865–1900

Clarence Clendenen, Robert Collins, and Peter Duignan. Third in a series of studies investigating United States involvement in Africa. Much of the information was obtained from American memoirs and autobiographies, missionary reports, journals and government dispatches. Hard, $4.00; Paper, $3.00

GENEVA-AFRICA

THE JOURNAL OF THE GENEVA-AFRICA INSTITUTE

Africa in time past lent the European imagination that touch of exotic adventure which its own milieu did not always provide. That time is no more. Africa today seeks her own way through difficulties and incertitudes to which no one open to her desire to meet on terms of equality can remain indifferent.

It is the wish of Geneva-Africa to be an active partner in this unconditional dialogue, and to contribute to a deeper comprehension of the problems and opportunities facing an emergent Africa.
