Nations and Nationalism

The Journal of the Association for the Study of Ethnicity and Nationalism

Now in its fifth year of publication, Nations and Nationalism is a multidisciplinary, scholarly journal specifically designed to respond to the growing research interest in nationalism that has been stimulated by the increasing proliferation of nationalist movements throughout the world. In addition to publishing original articles, the journal includes commissioned book reviews and review articles. Special issues highlight subjects and areas of current interest. Articles are drawn from a wide variety of disciplines including political science and theory, international relations, sociology, history, geography, anthropology, law, linguistics, cultural studies, area studies, economics, social policy, social psychology, art history, archaeology and philosophy. Articles address all aspects of nationalism — theoretically, empirically, comparatively, and historically.

Post-Communist Economies

Formerly Communist Economies & Economic Transformation

EDITORIAL BOARD

Morris Bornstein, University of Michigan, USA;
Roger Clarke (Editor), University of Glasgow, UK;
Philip Hanson, CREES, Birmingham, UK; Jacek Rostowski, CEU, Budapest, Hungary; Bruno Schönfelder, Bergakademie Freiberg, Germany and Ljubo Sirc, CRCE, London, UK

Supported by an International Advisory Council

Post-Communist Economies is the new title for Communist Economies and Economic Transformation. The title has been changed because of a growing feeling that the major processes into which transformation has generally been divided - stabilisation, liberalisation and privatisation - have in substantial measure been completed in most of the former communist countries, even though this is more true of some than others, and all still have some distance to go to match the long-established market economies in these respects.

Yet despite the dramatic changes that have taken place in the past decade, the post-communist economies still form a clearly identifiable group, presenting distinctive problems. The focus may thus have moved on from basic transformation, but the post-communist economies will continue to be an important area of economic and political analysis. Post-Communist Economies will contribute to this research by publishing the key research and policy articles in the field.

Journal of Genocide Research

New in 1999

EDITOR

Henry R. Huttenbach

The City College of the City University of New York, USA

Journal of Genocide Research promotes an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to the study of genocide. Genocide has reared its head numerous times throughout the twentieth century. These repeated attempts at annihilation pose some of the more perplexing questions of the modern age, warranting systematic, scholarly investigation. The journal pays particular attention to the potentially genocidal danger posed by the contemporary resurgence of extreme ethnic conflict throughout the world, as well as to the problems it poses politicians, diplomats and policy-makers who seek to predict and prevent genocide.

Journal of Genocide Research is designed to serve as an international forum for broad spectrum of scholars including theologians, philosophers, jurists, moralists, ethicists, political scientists and historians, and aims to further the theory and methodology of, and comparative approach to genocide research.

NATIONALITIES PAPERS is the only journal in the world which deals exclusively with all nationalities of the former USSR, and also with national minorities in Eastern and Central European countries. The problems and importance of over 140 million people are treated with the disciplinary and methodological contexts of Post-Soviet and Europe-Asia studies. Of central concern is the fate of the Balts, Ukrainians, Jews and the peoples of Central Asia and the Caucasus. Nationalities Papers is an international and multidisciplinary journal with contributors and readers throughout North America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Far East, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Included in each general issue are in-depth analyses from the historical view, updates on latest developments, some original documents, and book reviews; some issues concentrate on a region or nationality as a special topic, which exclusive focus allows for more extensive and detailed information.

Submission of manuscripts. For information on submitting manuscripts, write to: Dr Nancy M. Wingfield, Nationalities Papers, Department of History, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL 60115, USA.

Business correspondence, including orders and remittances related to subscriptions, back issues, offprints and advertisements, should be addressed to the publisher: Carfax Publishing Ltd, PO Box 25, Abingdon, Oxfordshire OX14 3UE, UK.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in The Association for the Study of Nationalities. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication without prior permission from Carfax, provided that acknowledgement is given to the journal as the original source of publication, and that Carfax is notified so that our records show that its use is properly authorised.
