Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

If you want to submit an article for our editors to look at, please send it to:
Itinerario@hum.leidenuniv.nl

Authors submitting work to Itinerario are advised to follow the submission guidelines as closely as possible to minimise editorial changes to their work and thus minimise the chance of introducing errors inadvertently into your writing. The guidelines are based on and are similar to the recommendations found in the internationally known and respected Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition, and readers are encouraged to refer to that work should they require clarification. Likewise, they can always address any particular questions to the editors at Itinerario@hum.leidenuniv.nl.

Submission guidelines can be found at <https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/itinerario/information/instructions-contributors>
