3rd Annual Symposium on Expatriate Stress and Breakdown.

The Importance of Selection.

The Expatriate Wife.

These are the major topics which will be discussed at the 3rd Annual Symposium on Expatriate Stress and Breakdown.

Papers will be presented by specialists in the fields of psychological and occupational medicine and in personnel management and recruitment, selection and preparation for overseas postings. All the speakers have practical experience in dealing with these problems or are involved in prevention, treatment and research.

The symposium will be held at The Royal College of Physicians in London on Wednesday 30th October.
