

News, Notes and Queries

REFERENCES

1. ASTRUC, J., A Treatise on the Venereal Disease, trans. by William Barrowby, London 1737.
2. DIBDIN, T. F., A Biographical Tour of North England and Scotland, London, 1838, vol. 2.
3. DOBSON, JESSIE, and THOMAS, K. BRYN, 'Letters of William Hunter from his American pupils', Bibliothek, 1959-62, 3, 6.
4. HUNTER, W., 'Observations on bones found near the River Ohio', Phil. Trans. R. Soc. Lond., 1768, 12, 504.
5. HUNTER, W., 'An account of the Nyl-Ghau', Phil. Trans. R. Soc. Lond., 1770, 13, 117.
6. HUNTER, W., 'Observations on human bones filled with lead', Archaeologia, 1786, 4, p. 69.
7. ILLINGWORTH, C. F. W., The Story of William Hunter, Edinburgh and London, Livingstone, 1967.
8. ILLINGWORTH, C. F. W., 'William Hunter's influence on obstetrics', Scottish med. J., 1970, 15, 58.
9. KEYNES, G., The Portraiture of William Harvey, Vicary Lecture, Royal College of Surgeons of England, London, 1949.
10. MURRAY, D., Some Letters of Robert Foulis, Glasgow, Maclehose, 1917.
11. Opus epistolarum Petri Martyris Angheri Michaelis de Eguia, 1530.
12. PROCTOR, R., Printing of Greek in the Fifteenth Century, Bibliographical Society Monograph No. 8, Oxford, 1900.
13. SIMMONS, S. F., Life and Writings of William Hunter, London, 1783.
14. THOMAS, K. BRYN, Dr. James Douglas, London, Pitman Medical, 1964.
15. VAUGHAN, J., Observations on the Hydrophobia, etc., London, 1778.

SIR CHARLES ILLINGWORTH

---

WANTED

THE EDITOR is urgently seeking the following back issues of Medical History in order to complete a set and would be grateful to any reader who may be able to supply them.

Volume I (1957) no. 2; volume II (1958), no. 4; volume III (1959), nos. 1, 3; volume IV (1960), no. 4; volume V (1961), all.

F.N.L.P.