CORPORATE MEMBERS

CHARLES EDE LTD.
LEVENTIS OVERSEAS LTD
IOANNOU AND PARASKEVAIDES (UK) LTD

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF HELLENIC STUDIES WAS FOUNDED IN 1879 TO ADVANCE THE STUDY OF GREEK LANGUAGE, LITERATURE, HISTORY, ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY IN THE ANCIENT, BYZANTINE AND MODERN PERIODS. MEMBERSHIP IS OPEN TO ALL, AND THERE IS A REDUCED RATE FOR STUDENTS.

Membership rates

2007 rates are as follows: full members £36 (or $72 or €72), £35 for those who pay by direct debit; student associates £20 (or $40 or €40), corporate members £150, libraries and institutions £55 (or $110 or €110). Life membership is available at £180 (or $360 or €360) to those over 65 years of age after five years' ordinary membership.

Publications

The Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports are published annually and sent to all members of the Society. Back numbers of the Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports may be ordered from the Society office: prices and availability are given in the 'Hellenic Society Publications' notice in this volume, which also gives details of indices for JHS 1941-1970 and JHS 1971-1990, Supplementary Papers and Occasional Publications.

The Joint Library

The Society helps to maintain the Joint Library, in conjunction with the Roman Society and the Institute of Classical Studies. Membership of the Hellenic Society allows the reader to borrow (within the UK) up to four books at a time, either in person or by post. Members may also borrow slides from the Joint Library's extensive collection.

Lectures

The Society arranges an annual lecture series in London, and helps to arrange other lectures in collaboration with the various local branches of the Classical Association: a programme of all these lectures is circulated in September to UK members, and is posted on our website.

Grants

The Society aims to help those engaged in Hellenic Studies at all levels, and to this end it makes grants of various kinds (further details and application forms are available from the Society office):

- Schools teaching Greek language, history or civilization may apply for grants from the Schools Subcommittee: generous donations from the A G Leventis Foundation have recently enabled the Society to increase the grants awarded, in number and size.
- Students who are interested in attending the Summer School run by the British School at Athens may apply for a bursary from the Society to assist them financially.
- Postgraduate students and other scholars engaged in specified areas of research may apply for grants from the Dover Fund.
- Institutions (typically, but not exclusively, universities) may apply for a grant from the Council of the Society, to fund academic conferences and other events.

Further details are given in a Prospectus available from the Society office or the Joint Library: these details are also given on our Web page at <http://www.hellenicsociety.org.uk>. For all further information please contact:

Contributions to the Journal should be sent to the Editor, c/o the Society office (address above). Please send photocopies or printout, retaining original copy. A style guide is available for consultation on the Society's website. Copy on computer disk is also required, but please send disks only when your contribution has been accepted. Illustrations, including diagrams, must be supplied as camera-ready copy. For further details, please contact the Production Editor (Society address). Books for review should be addressed to the Librarian (Society address). The Journal does not accept unsolicited book reviews.
