NEW VOLUME OF MR. ROGERS' "ARISTOPHANES"

THE ACHARNIANS OF ARISTOPHANES.

The Greek Text, revised, and a Metrical Translation on opposite pages, with Introduction and Commentary, by BENJAMIN BICKLEY ROGERS, M.A. Fcap. 4to. 10s. 6d.

"THE KNIGHTS" is also in the press, and will be issued shortly, and the two plays will be published together as Vol. I. of the complete edition. Price 15s.

Also now ready. Vol. V. (containing the Frogs and the Ecclesiazusae), 15s.; and following the separate Plays—Frogs, 10s. 6d.; Ecclesiazusae, 7s. 6d.; Thesmophorizusae, 7s. 6d.; Birds, 10s. 6d.; Plutus (with the Menaechmi), 8s. 6d.; also the Menaechmi, separately, 1s. 6d.

"It is difficult to be grateful enough to Mr. Rogers for his really splendid labours of love and learning. Not only does he seem to have waded through all the commentators, but he has brought to bear upon them a knowledge of the world and a sense of literature which commentators have not always possessed. As for his metrical version, it is delightfully musical and idiomatic, and the choruses go sparkling along like those of a Gilbertian play."—Saturday Review.

SIR RICHARD C. JEBB said: "It might safely be said of every poetical text in the new 'Corpus' that this edition of it is on the highest level of contemporary Latin scholarship, and also represents the most advanced knowledge of that text to which critical research has attained. Altogether this new 'Corpus' is a boon to students of which it would be impossible to overrate the value."
