

Foreword

This is the eighth volume discussing legal decisions of the World Trade Organization. The studies are conducted under the auspices of The American Law Institute for publication by the Cambridge University Press. Our series of books have now analyzed all the important WTO decisions since 2000.

We appreciate the intellectual and administrative leadership of Professors Henrik Horn and Petros Mavroidis, the creative work of the essays' authors, and the constructive criticism by trade law experts. We also appreciate the financial support we have received from The Jan Wallander and Tom Hedelius Foundation and from the Milton and Miriam Handler Foundation.

This is important work and The American Law Institute is proud to have been its sponsor.

LANCE LIEBMAN
Director
The American Law Institute