Ethics and Benefit-Cost Analysis

Guest Editor: Lisa A. Robinson

Peer review process:

The papers in this special issue were reviewed following the Journal of Benefit-Cost Analysis' standard peer review process.

Acknowledgments:

This special issue builds on a Brocher Foundation Summer Academy, "Healthy, Wealthy, and Wise - The Ethics of Health Valuation." The Summer Academy was selected by the Foundation's Scientific Committee and held in 2022 with the Foundation's financial support. It was organized by Nir Eyal (Rutgers University), Samia Hurst (University of Geneva), Lisa A. Robinson (Harvard University), and Daniel Wikler (Harvard University). More information on the Summer Academy, including the program and background readings, is available here: <https://fondation-brocher.ch/event/brocher-summer-academy-in-global-population-health-2022-healthy-wealthy-and-wise-the-ethics-of-health-valuation-2/>

Principal financial support for this special issue was provided by the Brocher Foundation, with supplemental funding from the Rutgers University Center for Population-Level Bioethics, the University of Geneva Institute for Ethics, History, and the Humanities, and the University of Bergen Centre for Ethics and Priority Setting.

The authors and editor thank the Brocher Foundation, Summer Academy participants, and peer reviewers for their support and many insightful discussions. We also thank Journal of Benefit-Cost Analysis Editor-in-Chief Thomas J. Kniesner and the Cambridge University Press staff for their help and support.

More information on the Brocher Foundation is available here: <https://fondation-brocher.ch/>.
