
Editorials

- 241 Eating disorder services: starved of resources
U. Schmidt
- 242 Addiction research and the future of addiction psychiatry
I. B. Crome

- 261 Severe mental illness and airports – the scope of the problem
U. C. Weishmann, M. Anjoyeb and B. B. Lucas
- 264 Developing a child and adolescent mental health service for children with learning disabilities
K. Green, C. Williams, B. Wright and I. Partridge

Opinion & debate

- 244 Institutional racism in British psychiatry
S. P. Sashidharan
- 248 Commentary: institutional racism in British psychiatry
J. L. Cox

Special articles

- 268 Is compulsory community treatment ever justified?
V. Pinfold and J. Bindman
- 271 What role can/should the College and its members play in the World Psychiatric Association?
B. Martindale
- 273 Breaking the chains
S. B. Malik and I. Z. Bokharey
- 275 That 'praecox feeling'
Anonymous

Original papers

- 250 Improving the assessment of risk of violence: a clinical audit of case note documentation
M. Campbell and R. Chaplin
- 252 Questionnaire survey of automobile driving among users of a substance misuse service
T. Bradbeer, J. Ormsby and P. Fleming
- 254 How many patients self-medicate with St John's wort?
A. Redvers, R. Laugharne, G. Kanagaratnam and G. Srinivasan
- 256 Eating disorder in Scotland: starved of resources?
C. Lemouchoux, H. Millar and S. Najj

Columns

- 276 Correspondence
- 278 The College
- 279 Obituary
- 280 Reviews
- ibc Forthcoming events