Nations and Nationalism

Journal of the Association for the Study of Ethnicity and Nationalism

Editors

Anthony Smith, London School of Economics, Obi Patience Igwara, London School of Economics, Kelvin Knight, University of North London, Athena Leoussi, University of Reading, Terry Mulhall, London School of Economics

Nationalism is the central issue of the modern world. Since the demise of the Soviet Union there has been a proliferation of nationalism and ethnic conflict. The consequent explosion of interest in nationalism has created an urgent need for systematic study in this field. Nations and Nationalism aims to satisfy this need. The journal is published three times a year and includes original studies – theoretical, empirical and historical – of a range of issues in the field together with review articles and book reviews. Special issues will highlight subjects and areas of current interest. The journal covers all areas of the world.

Coverage includes:

- Theories of nationalism
- History and national identity
- Language and nationalism
- Religion and nationalism
- Class and nationalism
- Race and nationalism
- Gender and nationalism
- Democracy and multinational states
- Post-modernity and the nation
- Space and nationalism
- Mass media and nationalism
- Art and nationalism
- Imperialism and nationalism
- Secession and irredentism
- Nation states and international society

New Community

EDITOR

Malcolm Cross, European Research Centre on Migration and Ethnic Relations (ERCOMER), University of Utrecht, The Netherlands

Supported by an Editorial Advisory Committee at the University of Utrecht and an International Editorial Board

From 1971-94 New Community was the leading UK journal in the field of ethnic and racial studies. In 1995 New Community was relaunched to extend its coverage to the rest of Europe when it was taken over by the European Research Centre on Migration and Ethnic Relations at the University of Utrecht.

New Community is set to become the leading European journal on migration and ethnic relations. It is committed to publishing the results of the finest research on all forms of migration, whether for work, family reunion or the search for asylum, and on issues of ethnic conflict, nationalism, discrimination, racism and policies of integration.

New Community is especially interested in the results of comparative research from any branch of the social sciences (including law). The geographical focus is not confined to Europe, and the latter is defined to include the countries of Central and Eastern Europe.

1996 - Volume 22 (4 issues). ISSN 0047-9586.

NEW ACQUISITION FOR 1996

Global Society

Journal of Interdisciplinary International Relations

EDITOR

Jarrod Wiener,

University of Kent, Canterbury, UK

We are pleased to announce that Paradigms: The Kent Journal of International Relations is to be relaunched as Global Society: Journal of Interdisciplinary International Relations and will be published by Carfax Publishing Company on behalf of the University of Kent at Canterbury from Volume 10, 1996.

Global Society covers the new agenda in international relations and encourages innovative approaches to the study of international issues from a range of disciplines. It promotes the analysis of international transactions at multiple levels, and in particular, the way in which these transactions blur the distinction between the sub-national, national and transnational levels.

Contributions are from a variety of disciplines including International Relations, Political Science, Political Philosophy, International Political Economy, International Law, International Conflict Analysis and Sociology. The emphasis of the articles advances an understanding of the processes of transnationalization and globalization at various levels of social interaction, and the tensions that are caused between them.

1996 - Volume 10 (3 issues). ISSN 1360-0826.

Journal of Southern African Studies

EDITORS

Saul Dubow, University of Sussex, UK;
Liz Gunner and Debby Potts,
*School of Oriental and African Studies,
 University of London, UK*

Supported by an International Editorial Board.

The Journal of Southern African Studies (JSAS) is an international publication for work of high academic quality. It aims to generate fresh scholarly inquiry and exposition in the fields of history, economics, sociology, demography, social anthropology, administration, law, political science, international relations, literature and the natural sciences in so far as they relate to the human condition. It represents a deliberate effort to draw together the various disciplines in social science and its allied fields. Southern Africa represents a unique opportunity for the study of a wide variety of social problems. JSAS presents work which reflects new theoretical approaches, and work which discusses the methodological framework in general use by students of the area. The region covered embraces the following countries: the Republic of South Africa, Zimbabwe, Namibia, Botswana, Lesotho and Swaziland; Angola and Mozambique; Zambia, Malawi and occasionally Zaire, Tanzania, Madagascar and Mauritius.

1996 - Volume 22 (4 issues). ISSN 0305-7070.

Social Identities

Journal for the Study of Race, Nation and Culture

EDITORS

Abebe Zegeye,

University of California, Santa Barbara, USA

David Theo Goldberg,

Arizona State University, Tempe, USA

Supported by an International Editorial Board

Recent years have witnessed considerable worldwide changes concerning social identities such as race, nation and ethnicity, as well as the emergence of new forms of racism and nationalism as discriminatory exclusions.

Focusing on these changes is a new body of academic work appearing in a wide range of journals. The aim of Social Identities is to furnish an interdisciplinary and international focal point for theorizing issues at the interface of social identities. The journal is especially concerned to address these issues in the context of the transforming political economies and cultures of postmodern and postcolonial conditions. Social Identities is intended as a forum for contesting ideas and debates concerning the formations of, and transformations in, socially significant identities, their attendant forms of material exclusion and power, as well as the political and cultural possibilities opened up by these identifications.

1996 - Volume 2 (3 issues). ISSN 1350-4630.

Third World Quarterly

JOURNAL OF EMERGING AREAS

*AVAILABLE
ONLINE IN 1996

EDITOR

Shahid Qadir,

Royal Holloway, University of London, UK

Supported by an International Editorial Board

Third World Quarterly is the leading journal of scholarship and policy in the field of international studies. For almost two decades, it has set the agenda on Third World affairs. As the most influential academic journal covering the emerging world, Third World Quarterly is at the forefront of analysis and commentary on fundamental issues of global concern.

Third World Quarterly provides expert and interdisciplinary insight into crucial issues before they impinge upon media attention, as well as coverage of the latest publications in its comprehensive book review section.

Third World Quarterly's original articles provide diverse perspectives on the developmental process and a candid discussion on democratic transitions as well as identifying significant political, economic and social issues. Readable, free from esoteric jargon, informed without being abstruse, always authoritative and often provocative, Third World Quarterly covers the key North-South developments in the post-wall world.

SPECIAL ISSUES

Third World Quarterly annually commissions special issues on key concepts and processes. The 1996 Special Issue will be entitled The Developmental State: prosperity and reform in The Third World in the nineties.

NATIONALITIES PAPERS is the only journal in the world which deals exclusively with all nationalities of the former USSR, and also with national minorities in Eastern and Central European countries. The problems and importance of over 140 million people are treated with the disciplinary and methodological contexts of Post-Soviet and Europe-Asia studies. Of central concern is the fate of the Balts, Ukrainians, Jews and the peoples of Central Asia and the Caucasus. Nationalities Papers is an international and multidisciplinary journal with contributors and readers throughout North America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Far East, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Included in each general issue are in-depth analyses from the historical view, updates on latest developments, some original documents, and book reviews; some issues concentrate on a region or nationality as a special topic, which exclusive focus allows for more extensive and detailed information.

Submission of manuscripts. For information on submitting manuscripts, write to: Professor Henry R. Huttenbach, Editor-in-Chief, Nationalities Papers, Department of History, The City College of New York, 138th Street and Convent Avenue, New York, NY 10031, USA.
