

Of exceptional interest to the public will be the sleeping bag of Captain L. E. G. Oates, from which he walked out to his death in a blizzard. This has been presented by his brother, B. W. G. Oates, and is now in a case in the Memorial Vestibule.

J. M. WORDIE, Chairman	W. LAUNCELOT S. FLEMING
FRANK DEBENHAM	HUGH ROBERT MILL
G. I. TAYLOR

BINDING OF THE POLAR RECORD

Uniform binding of The Polar Record can be done by Messrs Gray, of Green Street, Cambridge, in blue cloth with gold lettering at a charge of 4s. 6d. per volume, plus 6d. postage. Two volumes are now complete, Nos. 1-8 and Nos. 9-16. Title-pages for the second volume will be sent to regular subscribers with the Index for Nos. 9-16. The title-page for the first volume can be obtained on application to the Institute or direct from the binders. Completed volumes for binding should be sent direct to the binders.

The Index for Nos. 9-16 will be sent to regular subscribers before the end of the current year.

ERRATA

The Polar Record, No. 17, January 1939

Page 1, line 17. For February 5 read February 16.
 line 18. For six days read one month.

[The date given for Bellinghausen's sighting of the Antarctic Continent was given from the "old style" calendar to which must be added eleven days to make it correspond with our Gregorian Calendar, the "new style".]

Page 2, line 17. For Berlinske read Berlingske.