

Journal of Benefit-Cost Analysis

Journal of Benefit-Cost Analysis

VOLUME 14 | ISSUE 1 | SPRING 2023

Invited Paper Symposium: Including Equity Issues in Benefit Cost Analyses

Inequality and the Value of a Statistical Life

Cass R. Sunstein 1

Promoting Equity through Equitable Risk Tradeoffs

Thomas J. Knesner and W. Kip Viscusi 8

An Equity Blindspot: The Incidence of Regulatory Costs

Caroline Cecot 35

The Generalized Risk-Adjusted Cost-Effectiveness (GRACE) Model for Measuring the Value of Gains in Health: An Exact Formulation

Darius N. Lakdawalla and Charles E. Phelps 44

Distributional weighting and welfare/equity tradeoffs: a new approach

Daniel J. Acland and David H. Greenberg 68

Articles

All Cancers Are not Created Equal: How Do Survival Prospects Affect the Willingness to Pay to Avoid Cancer?

Anna Alberini, Christoph M. Rheinberger and Milan Ščasný 93

When Can Benefit–Cost Analyses Ignore Secondary Markets?

Matthew J. Kotchen and Arik Levinson 114

Discounting in Natural Resource Damage Assessment

Eric Horsch, Daniel Phaneuf, Chris Giguere, Jason Murray, Cameron Duff and Cole Kroninger 141

Erratum

Discounting in Natural Resource Damage Assessment – Erratum

Eric Horsch, Daniel Phaneuf, Chris Giguere, Jason Murray, Cameron Duff and Cole Kroninger 162

Article

The Net Benefits and Residual Cost from U.S. Border Management of the Initially Inadmissible

Scott Farrow 163