

Psychiatric Bulletin

The Journal of Trends in Psychiatric Practice

September 1996

Volume 20 Number 9

Editorial

Is there a case for single sex wards? C. Henderson and A. Reveley 513

Original papers

Psychiatric clinics in residential homes for the elderly. G. Jackson and D. Lyons 516

Comparison of psychogeriatric domiciliary visit service between urban and suburban sectors. A. Jha and R. Lawrence 518

Out in the cold: a guide to survival in community surveys. G. Wolff and S. Pathare 521

The role of the speech and language therapist in psychiatry. N. J. Muir 524

Psychiatric intensive care units, a design for living. R. Dix and K. Williams 527

Rationality without reason and the aetiology of mental illness. C. Baldwin 530

Smoking in chronic psychiatric illness: is it worth it? C. McDonald and N. Sheppard 533

A survey of psychotherapy training among psychiatric trainees. R. J. Hamilton and D. Tracy 536

Neuroleptic prescribing in an adolescent psychiatric in-patient unit. K. Lowe, H. Smith and A. Clark 538

The need for dynamic psychotherapy. C. Whyte 541

Interview

Marjorie Wallace, MBE. In conversation with Rosalind Ramsey. 543

Audit

The care programme approach. J. S. Jamieson 550

Education

General practice and brief psychotherapy: a novel psychiatric training post. J. Scott 553

Briefings

All lost and in one day. D. Jolley 556

Australia: getting there. A. Wilkie 558

History of psychiatry

The evolution of psychiatric care – a spiral model. A. Sumathipala and R. Hanwella 561

Psychiatric vignette

'Bidding farewell' – an alternative to a diagnosis of acute depressive illness. E. Cybulska 564

Correspondence

565

The College

Course organisers' conference, 5 February 1996. J. Cox 571

Obituary

573

Miscellany

576

Forthcoming events

576