

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Journal of British Studies

Journal of British Studies and Cambridge University Press are delighted to announce a new publishing partnership

Editors

Brian Cowan, McGill University, Canada
Elizabeth Elbourne, McGill University, Canada

From 2013, Journal of British Studies will be published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the North American Conference on British Studies (NACBS). Subscriptions, including 2013 renewals, and customer service issues will be managed by Cambridge.

Journal of British Studies's transition to Cambridge brings a wealth of benefits to subscribers, including:

- All institutional subscriptions to Journal of British Studies will include online access to current articles via Cambridge Journals Online (CJO)
- Availability of complete online archive: Volumes 1 through 50, plus the complete archive of Albion, a complementary journal formerly published by the NACBS
- Dedicated customer service and sales teams will help you manage the transition of your subscription
- Clear and familiar lines of communication are available for claims and subscription renewal

If you are a current subscriber, you will receive your regular renewal notice. You may return this notice directly to Cambridge or continue to order through your subscription agent. Please note that the journal will no longer be available as part of the JSTOR Current Scholarship Program. If you would like to subscribe, the contact details for our Customer Services Departments are listed in the column to the right.

The Historical Journal

Editors

Julian Hoppit, University College London, UK

Andrew Preston, University of Cambridge, UK

The Historical Journal continues to publish papers on all aspects of British, European, and world history since the fifteenth century. The best contemporary scholarship is represented. Contributions come from all parts of the world. The journal aims to publish some thirty-five articles and communications each year and to review recent historical literature, mainly in the form of historiographical reviews and review articles. The journal provides a forum for younger scholars making a distinguished debut as well as publishing the work of historians of established reputation.

Journal of Global History

Published for London School of Economics and Political Science

Chief Editor

William Gervase Clarence-Smith, SOAS, London, UK

Editors

Kenneth Pomeranz, University of California, USA

Merry Wiesner-Hanks, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, USA

Journal of Global History addresses the main problems of global change over time, together with the diverse histories of globalization. It also examines counter-currents to globalization, including those that have structured other spatial units. The journal seeks to transcend the dichotomy between 'the West and the rest', straddle traditional regional boundaries, relate material to cultural and political history, and overcome thematic fragmentation in historiography. The journal also acts as a forum for interdisciplinary conversations across a wide variety of social and natural sciences.

Instructions for contributors

MIH serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship in intellectual history and related fields. Though its primary focus is on Europe and the United States, it also devotes attention to intellectual and cultural exchanges between the West, the non-West, and the Americas. It encompasses the period from 1650 to the present. MIH is concerned with this era's intellectual discourses - with understanding the contextual origins and reception of texts, and with recovering their historical meaning. The term "texts" encompass various forms of intellectual and cultural expression, including political thought, philosophy, religion, literature, the social sciences, the natural sciences, and the visual arts.

1. SUBMISSIONS

Articles submitted for consideration should be sent to Modern Intellectual History, Boston University, Department of History, 226 Bay State Road, Boston, MA 02215, USA. Email mih@bu.edu

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media, including electronic publication, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

Contributors must follow the layout and stylistic conventions of MIH. Detailed Instructions for contributors can be obtained from the Web at http://journals.cambridge.org/journal_ModernIntellectualHistory.

The recommended length of articles is 10,000–12,000 words including footnotes. The recommended length of review essays is 5,000 words including footnotes.

Articles should normally be written in English. Spelling may follow either British or American convention but must be consistent.

Contributors should submit an electronic copy in Word as an email attachment.

3. PROOFS

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

4. OFFPRINTS

No paper offprints are provided, but the corresponding author will be sent the pdf of the published article. Print offprints may be purchased at extra cost at proof stage.

Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or direct to the publisher: Cambridge University Press, The Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 2RU; or in the USA, Canada and Mexico: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, New York 10994-2133. Periodicals postage paid at New York, NY and at additional mailing offices.

Copying

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA. Organizations in the USA who are also registered with the C.C.C. may, therefore, copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of U.S. Copyright law) subject to payment to the C.C.C. of the per copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 1479-2443/12. ISI Tear Sheet Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only. Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge or from the American branch of Cambridge University Press.

Modern Intellectual History is included in the Cambridge Journals Online service which can be found at <http://journals.cambridge.org>. For further information on other Press journals access <http://cambridge.org/journals>.
