

Mediterranean Quarterly

A Journal of Global Issues

Philip C. Habib, Senior Editor
Nikolaos A. Stavron, Editor
Robert J. Pranger, Managing Editor

"This sophisticated journal succinctly presents the views of leading thinkers and analysts—and players, or retired players—on the pressing diplomatic questions of the day."—The Washington Post

Mediterranean Quarterly is published under the editorial direction of Mediterranean Affairs Inc. by Duke University Press. It provides an open forum for reasoned and provocative analysis and commentary on topics of international interest. As a "Journal of Global Issues," MQ reaches for wide horizons and will not be bound in its subject matter either by region or by partisan political interests.

Contributions to volume 1 (1990) include

Elliot Richardson, former U.S. Secretary of Defense, on Law of the Sea

Boutros Ghali, State Secretary of Foreign Affairs in Egypt, on Egypt in the Arab League

Senator Robert Dole on Lebanon and the Middle East

Hungarian Foreign Minister Gyula Horn on Human Rights in Hungary

Frank Snowden, Howard University, on African Civilization and the Mediterranean

Former British Prime Minister Edward Heath on Britain and the European Community

Noel Koch, former Pentagon Director of Special Planning, on Terrorism

Zivorad Kovacevic, former Yugoslav Minister of Foreign Economic Affairs, on Mediterranean Environmental Policy

Subscription prices $44 institutions, $24 individuals, $12 students. Please add $8 for surface postage outside the U.S., or inquire about airmail prices.

Origins of Terrorism

Psychologies, Ideologies, Theologies, States of Mind

Edited by WALTER REICH

A pioneering attempt to explain the nature and sources of terrorist behaviour in all its diversity. International experts from a wide range of disciplines discuss terrorists' beliefs, actions, goals and world views, looking at the mechanisms by which they commit acts of violence and the ways in which governments respond to terrorist threats and actions.

Notes for Contributors

1 All contributions should be sent to: The Editors, British Journal of Political Science, University of Essex, Wivenhoe Park, Colchester, Essex CO4 3SQ. They should not be sent to the Cambridge University Press or to the Editorial Assistant.

2 Articles submitted to the Journal should in general be between 5,000 and 12,000 words (or equivalent in tables and figures) in length. An abstract not exceeding 120 words is required.

3 Notes and Comments are welcome. A Note should contain a body of original information, a new method for doing something or a new idea (speculation, argument, proof, etc.) presented in a brief and unadorned form without inessential commentary. Comments containing criticisms of articles published in the Journal and additional thoughts on them will be considered for early publication, especially if they are short – say, under 1,000 words.

4 Most issues of the Journal contain a Review Article – either a detailed discussion of a single book or a review of the state of some area of the discipline. Review Articles submitted without prior consultation will be considered for publication, but in their own interest contributors would be well advised not to prepare a Review Article specially for the Journal without first getting in touch with the Editors.

5 Contributors should note the Journal's editorial policy, which is as stated inside the front cover.

6 Authors of articles and Review Articles receive twenty-five free offprints. Additional copies may be bought if they are ordered at proof stage.

7 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. In the interest of authors, copyright is normally assigned to the Cambridge University Press.

8 Authors should submit FOUR COPIES of their articles. Contributions must be typed and may be reproduced in any clearly legible form. The preferred size of paper is A4 (8½ × 11½ in), but quarto (8 × 10 in) or the US standard size (8½ × 11 in) will also be accepted. Because of postage costs, manuscripts not accepted for publication are not normally returned to the author unless their return is specifically requested.

9 The entire material of any article, including footnotes, quotations, appendices, etc., should be double spaced, with left-hand margins of at least 1½ in. The preferred treatment of footnotes is that they should be numbered consecutively in the text and typed double spaced all together at the end, beginning on a fresh page.

10 Anyone who is preparing a manuscript for submission to the Journal is urged to follow the Journal's style sheet, which covers a number of detailed points concerning footnotes, punctuation, spelling, etc. Copies of the style sheet can be obtained from the Editor. Footnote references should always contain, in the case of books, the name of the author as it appears on the title page, the full title including any subtitle, the place of publication, the name of the publisher and the date of publication, and, in the case of articles, the name of the author, the full title, the name of the journal, the volume number, the year and the page reference (number of first and last page).

11 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by air mail where appropriate, within ten days of receiving them. The master proof will always be sent directly to the Editor by the printer; contributors will receive duplicates.
