Editors

"This encyclopedia is as usefully informative as it is carefully crafted. America's vigorous Restorationist churches, personalities, publications, institutions of higher learning, and associations have long needed a comprehensive and discerning interpretive guide. This volume meets that need splendidly."

— MARK A. NOLL

"A scholarly, authoritative, and readable text that gives historical and theological information important to members of these churches and to all those interested in modern church history."

— EVERETT FERGUSON

"A stunning accomplishment. It is sweeping in scope but rich in detail. . . .
Delightful to read."

— DAVID E. HARRELL JR.

"Historians of American religion have long puzzled over the various and confusing congeries of the Stone-Campbell Movement. This remarkable volume provides an indispensable guide to understanding this important tradition."

— RANDALL BALMER

A New Series on CHRISTIAN THOUGHT

Written by college professors and designed particularly for undergraduate courses in theology and religion, The Westminster History of Christian Thought offers reliable and accessible introductions to Christian thought for each major period in Christian history—the early church, the medieval era, the Reformation, the modern age, and the contemporary period—and a volume on American religious thought.

Christendom at the Crossroads The Medieval Era

THE WESTMINSTER HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT

J. A. Sheppard

Paper • $19.95 (Canada $24.75)

ISBN: 0-664-22813-5

“Using the familiar frame of the Apostles’ Creed, Sheppard identifies ideas and themes from the Middle Ages that can still be meaningful to Protestants today.”

—Laura A. Smit, Assistant Professor of Religion and Dean of the Chapel,
Calvin College

In Christendom at the Crossroads, the introductory book in this series, J. A. Sheppard explores the development of Christian theology in the medieval period. Expertly leading readers through the major theological controversies and issues of the era, Sheppard highlights why those particular questions were so important for Christian believers at that time.

J. A. Sheppard is Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of Faculty at Southwestern College in Winfield, Kansas.

Her Heart Can See

The Life and Hymns
of
Fanny J. Crosby

EDITH L. BLUMHOFER

“In this marvelous new biography . . . Blumhofer offers a lively account of Crosby’s many accomplishments [and] also contextualizes Crosby’s life in larger currents of American history. . . . A splendid and entertaining contribution to American religious history.”

— Publishers Weekly (starred review)

“This is a first-rate biography, meticulously researched and elegantly crafted. . . . Edith Blumhofer shows the ways in which music, gender, disability, money, and the remarkably ecumenical character of evangelical religion in the late nineteenth century shaped Crosby’s life and work. In the process, Blumhofer proves once again that she is a historian of exceptional skill.”

Is the Reformation Over?

Mark A. Noll and Carolyn Nystrom

0801027977 • 272 pp. • $24.99c

“Noll and Nystrom have produced a volume remarkable for its intellectual maturity and depth. Not since Berkouwer’s great works on Catholicism have we seen anything like this. Written with utter clarity and directness, undergirded by immense historical and theological scholarship, this volume is the best available statement of the relationship and by itself is a vital step in making informed conversation between the parties possible.”

—William M. Shea, director, Center for Religion, Ethics, and Culture, College of the Holy Cross; author, The Lion and the Lamb: Evangelicals and Catholics in America

The American Evangelical Story

Douglas A. Sweeney

080102658X • 208 pp. • $17.99p

“The American Evangelical Story is a fascinating and readable introduction to the history and theology of the evangelical movement. Douglas Sweeney tells the story of American evangelicalism with the passion and clarity of an insider and the insightful eye of a trained and seasoned historian. With recognition of evangelicalism’s imperfections and failures, Sweeney recounts a movement that attempts to be faithful to the gospel, is broad and inclusive in its reach, and at its best motivates participants to act to change humanity both at home and abroad.”—David G. Roebuck, director, Hal Bernard Dixon Jr. Pentecostal Research Center, Lee University; executive secretary, Society for Pentecostal Studies

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, Yale University Divinity School, 409 Prospect St., Box 473, New Haven, CT 06511.

Church History: Studies in Christianity and Culture is published four times per year (March, June, September, and December) by the American Society of Church History. Membership dues for individuals in the U.S. and Canada are $50 per year for regular members, $25 per year for retired persons, and free for two years for students with the approval of a professor who is a member of the Society (after two years, students pay $25 annually until graduation). Dues for individuals in other countries are $75 per year for regular members, $30 per year for retired persons and students (with the same two-year gratis stipulations). Institutional subscriptions are $75 per year in the U.S. and Canada, $100 per year in all other countries. Single issues are $25 each. Please make remittances payable to "American Society of Church History."

Office of the executive secretary: American Society of Church History, Yale University Divinity School, 409 Prospect St., Box 473, New Haven, CT 06511.

Subscription applications, renewals, changes of address, claims for missing numbers, orders for single copies of current or back issues, and requests for permission to quote should be sent to the executive secretary. Claims for missing numbers will be honored without charge if made within two months of the regular month of publication.

Microfilm reproductions of The American Society of Church History Papers, series I and II, and of Church History, volumes 1–17 (1932–48), are available from the ATLA Preservation Board.
