

Authority Vested

A Story of Identity and Change in the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod

Mary Todd

Foreword by Martin E. Marty

“This balanced and well-researched book is the best historical account of the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod that I know of. Its central focus — authority and the office of the ministry — is the perfect prism through which to consider this religious movement turned denomination.”

— Betty A. DeBerg

“This is more than an insider’s book about the internal dynamics of a single denomination. . . . Todd’s study suggests the value of such careful study in other contexts.”

— L. DeAne Lagerquist

ESSAYS AND REVIEWS

THE 1860 TEXT AND ITS READING

Edited by Victor Shea and William Whitla

Essays and Reviews is a collection of seven articles that appeared in 1860, sparking a Victorian culture war that lasted for at least a decade. The book signaled an intellectual and religious crisis, raised influential issues of free speech, and questioned the authority and control of the Anglican Church in Victorian society. Although many historians and literary critics have identified Essays and Reviews as a pivotal text of high Victorianism, until now it has been almost inaccessible to modern readers. This first critical edition provides extensive annotation to map the various positions on the controversies that the book provoked.

Utilizing all the resources of economics and history, he addresses what he takes to be the urgent problem of our time, the need to promote a new egalitarianism that is moral and spiritual rather than economic and technological.”—Gertrude Himmelfarb

In this new study, Lawrence Little describes how the A.M.E. Church reacted to American foreign policy in the years from the partition of Africa in 1884 to the U.S. invasion of Haiti in 1916. By examining and analyzing church rhetoric and actions in response to imperialism and oppression, he shows how the A.M.E. Church pursued the global application of liberty and identified with oppressed peoples around the world, regardless of race.
