GLOSAIR™ System H₂O₂ Technology: Dependable disinfection. Every time.

Inconsistencies in manual cleaning can leave your facility vulnerable to healthcare-associated infections (HAIs). The GLOSAIR™ System safely delivers powerful disinfection for the added protection hospital environments need. It's easy to operate and can be customized to meet your facility's specific disinfection goals.*

Call for Manuscripts:

The Role of the Environment in Infection Prevention

Infection Control and Hospital Epidemiology (ICHE) is pleased to announce that it will publish a peer-reviewed, special topic issue devoted to the role of the environment in infection prevention and healthcare epidemiology. This issue will be published in conjunction with the spring meeting of the Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America (www.shea-online.org) to be held in Atlanta, Georgia, May 2013. This conference will include a forum on the role of the environment that will bring together leaders from a variety of healthcare settings to discuss current research, effective strategies, and future research agendas.

Of particular interest are papers that address the following:

- Sterilization and disinfection: methods and technology, devices, quality and process improvement
- How to clean and disinfect the environment: methods and technology, quality and process improvement, daily vs. terminal cleaning
- The role of the environmental reservoir in transmission and outbreaks of specific organisms, and methods of control (e.g., MDROs, C. difficile, and Legionellae)
- Decolonization of patients to prevent specific infectious syndromes (e.g., BSI, SSI or VAP) and specific organisms (e.g., MRSA, C. difficile)
- Related issues in different patient populations (e.g., pediatrics, geriatrics) or special units (e.g., ICU, ER, hematology, transplant or non-acute care settings)
- Architectural design, construction, and renovation – environmental considerations for infection prevention

Authors are invited to submit their work electronically via Editorial Manager (www.editorialmanager.com/iche) no later than October 1, 2012. Research papers in the form of original articles (up to 3,000 words), concise communications (up to 1,200 words), and research briefs (up to 900 words) will be considered for review.

For manuscript preparation details, please see "For Contributors" at www.journals.uchicago.edu/ICHE or contact the editorial office at iche@press.uchicago.edu.

EDITOR: Elaine L. Larson, RN, PhD, FAAN, CIC

AJIC covers key topics and issues in infection control and epidemiology. Infection control professionals, including physicians, nurses, and epidemiologists, rely on AJIC for peer-reviewed articles covering clinical topics as well as original research. As the official publication of the Association for Professionals in Infection Control and Epidemiology, Inc. (APIC), AJIC is the foremost resource on infection control, epidemiology, infectious diseases, quality management, occupational health, and disease prevention. AJIC also publishes relevant infection control guidelines. AJIC is included in Index Medicus and CINAHL.

FORTHCOMING IN MAY

“Disease Maps is an extraordinary visual and narrative treat. I have come to look forward to Tom Koch’s books for the wonderful and unique way that he can synthesize data and present it visually and in the process tell us magnificent stories.”

Dr. Abraham Verghese,
Stanford University School of Medicine

“This is a masterful book in conception and structure. It is also extremely well written. What we find on reading is an exquisite telling of the history of the medical science of disease. The collection of medical maps, diagrams, and other illustrations is impressive in scope—there are many disease maps shown that have not been publicly available before or collected in one place.”

Clinical Governance

An International Journal

Clinical Governance: An International Journal aims to address the doubts, queries, triumphs and practical applications of introducing quality assurance mechanisms into the delivery of care.

The journal takes an international stance and covers key developments worldwide which can inform best practice in health care. Efficiency, effectiveness and economics are the main factors in the assessment of best practice and all are addressed in the research- audit- and evidence-based papers published. All papers are peer reviewed to ensure their validity and value to current debates.

The journal publishes:

- Research articles which illustrate clear implications for practice
- Results-focused case studies which discuss problems and successes in clinical governance techniques
- Special issues on topical themes

“An accessible and gripping narrative on a serious topic that manages to explain, in plain English, how viruses are changing the world.”—NATHAN WOLFE, founder and CEO of Global Viral Forecasting

A Planet of Viruses

CARL ZIMMER

“A Planet of Viruses is an important primer on the viruses living within and around all of us—sometimes funny, other times shocking, and always accessible. Whether discussing the common cold and flu, little-known viruses that attack bacteria or protect oceans, or the world’s viral future as seen through our encounters with HIV or SARS, Zimmer’s writing is lively, knowledgeable, and graced with poetic touches.”

About SHEA

The Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America (SHEA) was founded in 1980 to advance the science of healthcare epidemiology and infection prevention. SHEA works to maintain the utmost quality of patient care and healthcare worker safety in all healthcare settings, applying epidemiologic principles and prevention strategies to a wide range of quality-of-care issues. SHEA is strengthened by its active membership in all branches of medicine, public health, and healthcare epidemiology. The Society's expertise is sought by healthcare regulatory and accrediting agencies, and its scientific voice is influential in guiding decision-making bodies towards rational, effective, cost-conscious policies.

Mission

SHEA's mission is to prevent and control healthcare-associated infections and advance the field of healthcare epidemiology.

Core Values

SHEA as an organization:

- Advances the science of healthcare epidemiology through research and education
- Translates knowledge into effective policy and practice
- Mentors, trains and promotes professional development in healthcare epidemiology
- Collaborates and shares expertise with other organizations
- Adheres to high ethical standards and promotes honesty and ethical principles in the practice of epidemiology

Areas of Focus

- Epidemiologic research and laboratory investigation
- Applying the best evidence for protecting patients and reporting data
- Risk reduction programs focused on device and procedure management
