THE BRITISH ACADEMY

CROMER GREEK PRIZE

WITH the view of maintaining and encouraging the study of Greek, particularly among the young, in the national interest, the late Lord Cromer founded a Prize, to be administered by the British Academy, for the best Essay on any subject connected with the language, history, art, literature, or philosophy of Ancient Greece.

The Prize, which is ordinarily a sum of £150, is awarded every second year in May, under the following Rules:—

1. Competition is open to all British subjects and subjects of Eire of either sex who will be under thirty-five years of age on 31 December preceding the award.

2. Any such person desirous of competing must send in to the Secretary of the British Academy on or before 1 June of the year preceding the award the title of the subject proposed by him or her. The Academy may approve (with or without modification) or disapprove the subject; their decision will be intimated to the competitor as soon as possible.

3. Preference will be given, in approval of subjects proposed, to those which deal with aspects of the Greek genius and civilization of large and permanent significance over those which are of a minute or highly technical character.

4. Any Essay which has already received or is in competition for another prize of the same nature will be inadmissible. A candidate to whom the Prize has been awarded will not be eligible to compete for it again. But an Essay which has not received the Prize may be submitted again (with or without alteration) in a future year so long as the writer remains eligible under Rule 1.

5. Essays of which the subject has been approved must be sent in to the Secretary of the Academy on or before 31 December. They must be typed or printed and should have a note attached stating the main sources of information used.

6. It is recommended that the Essays should not exceed 20,000 words, exclusive of notes. Notes should not run to an excessive length.

Communications should be addressed to 'The Secretary of the British Academy, Burlington Gardens, London, W. 1'.

The next award will be in 1957.

Plato's Phaedo

R. HACKFORTH

Following his translations of the Philebus and the Phaedrus Professor Hackforth has now translated the Phaedo. He provides an introduction on its themes and purpose, and a step-by-step analysis of the argument. 21s. net

Representative Government in Greek and Roman History

J. A. O. LARSEN

This book examines the extent to which government was a feature of antiquity; and it describes the relation of this form of government to other Greek and Roman political institutions, in particular to the city-state. Volume 28 of the Sather Classical Lectures. UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS. 30s. net

Greek Lyrics

RICHMOND LATTIMORE

A selection of ninety Greek lyrics composed between the seventh and fifth centuries B.C. by Sappho, Pindar, Anacreon, and others of the great age of Greek lyric poetry. Professor Lattimore, whose other translations include The Iliad and The Odes of Pindar, follows the original metres closely. UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS. 17s. net

The Greek Dialects

C. D. BUCK

This is a complete revision and expansion of Professor Buck's earlier work, Introduction to the Study of the Greek Dialects. It comprises grammar, selected inscriptions (much of this material is new), and a glossary. UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS. 90s. net

GREECE BEFORE HOMER

ANCIENT CHRONOLOGY AND MYTHOLOGY

SIR JOHN FORSDYKE

An introduction to the literary and archaeological records of Prehistoric Greece, and an examination of the origins of Greek History, by the former Director of the British Museum. It will be welcomed both as an authoritative exposition of the state of our knowledge and as an absorbing study in patient detection. 18s. 6d.

PORTRAIT OF GREECE

LORD KINROSS AND DIMITRI

A journey through the sunlit countryside of Greece and the islands which surround it, recorded in text and in pictures which are quite astonishing in their revelation of colour and beauty. The glories of the Golden Age, the treasures of Byzantium, and the essence of Greek architecture are shown in their natural setting and in their true colour. With 40 photographs in the finest full-colour photogravure. 35s.

THE TWELVE OLYMPIANS AND THEIR GUESTS

CHARLES SELTMAN

A completely re-set library edition of Dr Seltman's famous study, enlarged and enriched by additions and revisions to the pictures and text. His witty and independent statement on Greek religion now includes a chapter on the 'Honorary Olympians' and an epilogue on the influence of the Olympians on Greek life and thought. 21s.

THE PALACE OF MINOS

J. D. S. PENDLEBURY

Foreword by Sir Arthur Evans. Introduction by Sir John Myres and Sir John Forsdyke. This famous guide is now available again, completely re-set and re-designed, and with a new introduction. There are 25 photographs and 8 plans of the Palace. 12s. 6d.

The Greek theatre: two important new books

T. B. L. Webster

GREEK THEATRE

PRODUCTION

Scenery, staging and costumes are the three main topics. They are treated chronologically within geographical areas, and in this way the evidence is given for local productions of drama all over the Greek-speaking world from the 6th century B.C. to the Roman period. The book is based on expert knowledge of the plays and a first-hand acquaintance with the monuments. Illustrated, 25s.

H. D. F. Kitto

FORM AND MEANING

IN DRAMA

An analysis of six Greek tragedies – the Orestes trilogy, Ajax, Antigone and Philoctetes – and Hamlet, with studies of the Greek and the Elizabethan dramatic forms, and of religious drama. The theme, vigorously presented, is that in any first-rate work of art, structure and style are ultimately identical with meaning, so that it is useless to consider them separately. 30s.

METHUEN

THE PHYSICAL WORLD OF THE GREEKS

S. Sambursky

Translated from the Hebrew by MERTON DAGUT. A picture of the cosmos as seen by the Ancient Greeks, from the sixth century B.C. till the second century A.D.; a fine background for the study of the Greek philosophers and men of science. Coming soon. 25s. net

Epicurus and His Gods

A. J. FESTUGIERE, O.P.

Epicurus and his Gods gives an excellent account of fourth-century moral and religious problems against their historical background, and draws a both just and illuminating picture (most exhaustively documented) of Epicurus's own position. His present translator is to be congratulated on a version as graceful as it is scrupulous . . . .

CAMBRIDGE EPIGRAPHICAL COLLECTION

The attention of members is drawn to the collection of squeezes of Greek inscriptions in the Museum of Classical Archaeology at Cambridge.

This collection already contains about 2000 squeezes. These are drawn mainly from Attica and Asia Minor; but additions are constantly being made from all parts of the Greek world.

Members of the Society who may wish to consult this collection are cordially invited to do so; and in special cases arrangements can be made for sending out a small number of squeezes on loan by post. The Museum authorities would also receive most gratefully any squeezes in private possession which their owners might wish to make available for general use.

SUPPLEMENTUM EPIGRAPHICUM GRAECUM

S.E.G. is published annually as a review of Greek Epigraphy. As far as possible, it gives references to work done during each year on or relating to Greek inscriptions, and reprints new or emended texts. This is a service which, it is hoped, will be of value not only to epigraphic specialists but also to classical scholars in general.

To assist him in making the annual Supplementum as complete as possible, the editor would be grateful if scholars who publish studies on Greek Epigraphy, or substantially using epigraphic material, would send him a notice (or if possible a reprint) of their work. Their co-operation in this way would be greatly appreciated.

THE GREEK TYRANTS

A. Andrewes

*Wykeham Professor of Ancient History,
University of Oxford*

Is concerned primarily with an early period of Greek history, when the aristocracies which ruled in the eighth and seventh centuries were losing control of their cities and were very often overthrown by a tyranny, which in its turn gave way to the oligarchies and democracies of the classical period. The author discusses here the various military, economic, political and social factors of the situation which produced these tyrannies.

"Brilliant and thought-provoking. . . This is the very best type of popular work, easy and elegant writing for the general reader, while the professional will recognize that it is packed with original thought not to be found elsewhere."

THE TIMES EDUCATIONAL SUPPLEMENT

"Deserves the highest praise; it is concise, easy to read, and provides enough documentation to check his views and pursue the subject further."

THE BYZANTINE WORLD

Joan M. Hussey

Professor of History, University of London

Describes the Byzantine world and its contribution to its own and later generations. Though living under the almost perpetual shadow of attack, it maintained the continuity of its cosmopolitan and cultured life from late Roman days down to its final conquest by the Ottoman Turks in the mid-fifteenth century. The later Middle Ages may have brought political disaster to Constantinople, but they were also a time of significant religious and intellectual and artistic activity, and the western "renaissance" owed much to increasing contacts with the Byzantine world. 10s. 6d. net

Negatives of Tablets in Linear B Script

The Tübingen University Library under the direction of Professor Dr. Paul Gehring, (14b) Tübingen, Wilhelmstrasse 32, West Germany, possesses a collection of photographic negatives of all the original tablets inscribed in Minoan-Cretan Linear B script in the Heraklion Museum which were not photographed or completely recorded in Scripta Minoa II.

The photographs were taken in the summer of 1952 by flashlight and in some cases on infra-red film. Positives are to be found in the Ashmolean Museum, Oxford; in the Heraklion Museum, Crete; and with Prof. Dr. Ernst Sittig, (14b) Tübingen-Lustnau, Denzenbergstrasse 53.

Epigraphists wishing to have prints of these photographs for their work should apply to Tübingen.
