In the article “Regulation of the Invasive Plant Heracleum persicum by Private Landowners in Tromsø, Norway,” there were several errors noted after publication. The affiliation for Aune was incorrect. The author’s correct affiliation is as follows:

Aune: Professor, Department of International Environment and Development Studies, Norwegian University of Life Sciences, P.O. Box 5003, 1432 Ås, Norway.

In the Literature Cited section, the reference Zajdela and Bisagni 1981 should have been omitted, as it is no longer cited in the published paper. The Google Maps 2017 reference should have been 2013, as the photographs used in conjunction with the research have been updated since 2014 and are no longer accessible. The reference

Haugen 2006 should have been cited at the following location on page 3:

The plant is a popular motif in works of artists, on postcards, for decoration (Alm 2006, 2013), and also for embroidery on a traditional folk costume of Tromsø (“Tromsø festdrakt”), a costume which has been fabricated since ca. 1980 (Haugen 2006).

Finally, the volume and page range of the reference Qvenild et al. 2014 was not cited properly; it is as follows:

Qvenild M, Setten G, Skår M (2014) Politicising plants. Invasive alien species and domestic gardening. Nor J Geogr 68:22–33

The authors and publisher regret these errors.
