Lexical Aids for Students of New Testament Greek

BRUCE M. METZGER

This long-standing and wide-selling book, which for more than thirty years has proved itself an indispensable aid to American students of New Testament Greek, is now available for the first time in a British edition.

Lexical Aids for Students of New Testament Greek makes use of the principle of associative learning by supplying, after the English definitions of Greek words, such English derivatives as may be of assistance in remembering the meaning of the Greek vocabulary. The Greek words in the list have been selected and arranged in accordance with their frequency of occurrence in the New Testament.

Part II exhibits the family relationships between words of frequent and those of less frequent occurrence. After a student has become acquainted with a minimum working vocabulary of words that occur many times, he can make more rapid progress in acquiring a larger vocabulary by learning such additional words as resemble in general meaning and form those he already knows.

'In successive editions of Professor Bruce Metzger's Lexical Aids immense learning, accuracy and simple clarity have for many years combined to give the learner expert guidance in doses measured to his capacity. . . It is hard to imagine anything better.'

C.F.D. Moule, Emeritus Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity, University of Cambridge

'Professor Bruce Metzger's Lexical Aids . . . is a "must" for the beginner in New Testament Greek. Its graded lists of words . . . lays the foundation of a good working vocabulary, because it is such a well-worked vocabulary of the New Testament writers.'

Matthew Black, Emeritus Professor of Biblical Criticism, University of St. Andrews

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to one of the editors: Rev. Dr A. I. C. Heron, New College, Mound Place, Edinburgh EH1 2LX; Rev. Dr J. Houston, University of Glasgow, 3 Southpark Terrace, Glasgow G12 8QQ or to Scottish Academic Press Ltd., 33 Montgomery Street, Edinburgh EH7 5JX.

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published in English, or is not being considered by another journal for publication in English. In the interests of authors, copyright is normally assigned to the Scottish Academic Press. The average length of articles is 5000 words. Although longer articles are accepted, those in excess of 10,000 words cannot be considered.

Contributions (articles and reviews) should be clearly typed in double spacing, and on one side of the paper only. The rule about double spacing applies also to footnotes, which should be used sparingly. Cross-references within the article offered should not be included.

Notes for the editors and instructions for the printer should be attached on separate sheets. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for use in correcting proofs.

Contributors from the United States may use U.S. spellings. Greek and Hebrew words need not be transliterated. Capitalisation should be kept to a minimum; and in particular should not be used in pronouns referring to the Deity.

First proofs of articles and reviews may be read and corrected by contributors, and should normally be returned to the organising editor within ten days of receipt. Correction should be confined to errors of the printer. More extensive correction can be made only with the concurrence of an editor. No proofs of reviews will be sent.

Contributors of articles and article reviews (but not of reviews) receive 10 free offprints. Extra copies may be bought according to an agreed scale of charges, provided that these are ordered at the time of returning corrected proofs.
