The Cambridge Law Journal

Editor

John Bell University of Cambridge, UK

The Cambridge Law Journal publishes articles on all aspects of law. Special emphasis is placed on contemporary developments, but the journal's range includes jurisprudence and legal history. An important feature of the journal is the Case and Comment section, in which members of the Cambridge Law Faculty and other distinguished contributors analyse recent judicial decisions, new legislation and current law reform proposals. The articles and case notes are designed to have the widest appeal to those interested in the law – whether as practitioners, students, teachers, judges or administrators – and to provide an opportunity for them to keep abreast of new ideas and the progress of legal reform. Each issue also contains an extensive section of book reviews.

International Journal of Law in Context

A global forum for interdisciplinary legal studies

The International Journal of Law in Context now features an exciting new section entitled 'Law in other contexts'. This section is dedicated to making available specially commissioned reports of socio-legal research in places where English is not the first language. In this way the journal hopes to bring attention to work which may not be easily accessible to those without knowledge of the relevant language (and culture).

Information for prospective contributors

The Editors invite online submissions of manuscripts for publication in Transnational Environmental Law via TEL's ScholarOne online submissions and review platform:

http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/TEL_submissions

Before submitting their work online, authors are strongly urged to refer to the instructions for manuscript preparation (including house style, referencing format, and additional guidance). For detailed submission instructions, see:

<http://www.journals.cambridge.org/TEL/ifc>

All other inquiries and correspondence related to TEL should be addressed to TEL@cambridge.org or to one or both of the TEL Editors-in-Chief, at the addresses listed on this inside cover.

All contributions in the journal are double-blind peer-reviewed. All manuscripts must entail original, previously unpublished work, and should not be under consideration for publication elsewhere. The Editors will also consider revised versions of previously released working papers, provided that such publication is clearly acknowledged upon submission of the paper for consideration to TEL.

TEL strives to respect an expedient turn-around time of 6–8 weeks between receipt of the manuscript and first notification of acceptance, rejection or need for revision.

The length of manuscripts should normally range between 8,000 and 11,000 words (including footnotes) for full-length articles; 3,000–6,000 words for commentaries and case notes; and 800–1,500 words for book reviews. Exceptionally, shorter or longer works may be considered at the Editors' discretion.

For further information, visit <http://www.journals.cambridge.org/TEL>

Books for review (and proposals for reviews) should be sent to the book review editors, listed above.
