British Medical Journal.

HAPI, THE GENIUS OF THE NILE AND THE FISH THAT DWELT THEREIN, was called the Father of the Gods and the Lord of Sustenance. Ears of corn and heaps of fishes were his attributes. The Egyptians chanted in their Hymn to the Nile:—"Hail! to Thee, HAPI, Lord of the Fish. When Thou arisest then the earth shouts for joy—all bellies are joyful, and each back is abashed with laughter. Hail! HAPI, Hail!"
