PRIZES OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CHURCH HISTORY

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize

The Brewer Prize is a subsidy of $2000 to assist the author in publishing a booklength manuscript in church history. The winning manuscript shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society. Manuscripts accepted for publication may be submitted for this award, but the winning manuscript must have printed on its title-page, "The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History." If competing works are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to topics relating to the history of Congregationalism. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 328 Deland Avenue, Indialantic, FL 32903, by 1 November each year, with return postage included. The award will be announced at the spring meeting of the Society.

The Philip Schaff Prize

The Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1000 to be paid to the author of the best book originating in the North American scholarly community which presents original research in the history of Christianity or any period thereof. Books considered for the next award must have been published during the year 1988 or 1989. Any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration for the Schaff Prize. Copies of books nominated do not have to be submitted. Titles nominated for consideration must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 328 Deland Avenue, Indialantic, FL 32903, by 1 March 1991. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December 1991.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize

The Mead Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent recipient whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Stephen J. Stein, Chair, Committee on Research, American Society of Church History, 1420 E. Maxwell Lane, Bloomington, IN 47401, by 1 July each year. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December.

What role has religion played in shaping the society in which we live?

RELIGION AND AMERICAN CULTURE

GEORGE M. MARSDEN

The Divinity School, Duke University

Paperbound, 288 pages. 1990

Explore the intriguing issues of religion's role in the formation of American society with this new textbook, which is ideal for courses in religious history. A major focus is the paradox of America's simultaneously very religious and very secular nature. Balanced coverage examines evangelical and mainstream Protestant and Catholic traditions. This interpretive narrative history provides a strong contextual grounding for understanding current ideological divisions between conservatives and liberals. Insights into areas such as who were insiders and who were outsiders in the development of America provide lively topics for classroom discussion. Illustrations complement the text throughout. Suggested Readings are presented at the end of each chapter.

THE ALBERT C. OUTLER PRIZE IN ECUMENICAL CHURCH HISTORY

The Outler Prize was established to encourage the critical study of ecumenical church history, broadly conceived, and to facilitate the publication of such studies. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as chiefly concerned with the problems of Christian unity-and-disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) in any period of church history; or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements. Works of a partisan nature are excluded. The following categories are eligible:

- a. Studies, chiefly narrative and critical, of ecumenical church history dealing with historical controversies and divisions, or with notable instances of reconciliation and consensus.
- b. Analyses of church councils, dialogues, and debates, or interactions between Christianity and other religious traditions.
- c. Biographical studies of significant leaders, or of persons whose involvement in ecumenical dialogue and action was noteworthy.
- d. Critical editions (preferably annotated) of significant ecumenical documents.
- e. Bibliographical reviews and evaluations in major areas of ecumenical church history.
- f. Pioneering studies that advance scholarly knowledge and ecumenical understanding.

The prize consists of an award of $1000 to the author and a possible grant of up to $3000 for publication (or in exceptional cases, for necessary expenses in the preparation of a book-length manuscript accepted for publication). The prize will be awarded annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 328 Deland Avenue, Indialantic, FL 32903, by 1 June. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December.

THE JANE DEMPSEY DOUGLASS PRIZE

The Douglass Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay on some aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Stephen J. Stein, Chair, Committee on Research, American Society of Church History, 1420 E. Maxwell Lane, Bloomington, IN 47401, by 1 August each year, beginning in 1990. No award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December.

"CONFESSOR BETWEEN EAST and WEST

places Cardinal Josyf Slipyj among the leading theological thinkers and doers of our time. . . . Seldom has there been a man whose life embodied so closely and intensely the plight of his Church. It is fitting that Jaroslav Pelikan's biography of Josyf Slipyj should appear at a moment in history when the Ukrainian Catholic Church in the Soviet Union emerges from the catacombs to reclaim and reaffirm its rightful place in Ukraine and within the universal church."

— Leonid Rudnytsky

"Yale historian Pelikan tells the story of Josyf Slipyj, the well-known 20th-century Ukrainian cardinal. Part 1 examines the history of the Slavic Church and Slipyj's place in that tradition. Part 2 traces the amazing career of a man whose 92 years (1892–1984)

TRAINING GOD'S ARMY

The American Bible School, 1880-1940

By Virginia Lieson Brereton

"Brings to light some of the formative years of American fundamentalist movements and the role of educational institutions in helping to advance and define these movements." —William J. Reese

Asserting that much of the vitality of conservative evangelicalism in the twentieth century is due to the influence of the Bible school movement, Brereton takes an in-depth look at the origin and development of the Bible schools where Protestant fundamentalists trained as evangelists, pastors, missionaries, and teachers.

THE PRAYING SOUTH VS. THE FIGHTING SOUTH

Subduing Satan

Religion, Recreation, and Manhood in the Rural South, 1865–1920
by Ted Ownby

"This is one of the freshest and most interesting books written about the American South in years. By focusing on the cultural conflicts of everyday life, Ownby gets us right to the heart of white culture in the South between Reconstruction and the 1920s."—Edward L. Ayers, University of Virginia

In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, the everyday cultural lives of rural white Southerners revolved around two opposing complexes of attitudes. The first, the Praying South, was centered in the female-dominated institutions of home and church and emphasized piety, self-restraint, and the purity of women. The second, the Fighting South, was found wherever men gathered outside the home and stressed competition, self-assertiveness, and violence. Ted Ownby shows what happened when outside, modernizing forces brought these two worlds in contact with each other.

REVOLUTION
REVOLUTION

WILLIAM R. ESTEP

FOREWORD BY BILL MOYERS

Paper, $14.95

"This is a masterful narrative of the protracted and sometimes painful struggle for religious liberty. I know of no other volume which shows so clearly the deep religious and spiritual roots of the process which issued in the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. This is a valuable resource both for historians and for all those involved in the contemporary dialogue on the separation of church and state."

"An important
and intelligently written book."

— Robert D. Linder

Distinguished historian William Estep offers in this book a lively account of the persons and events that influenced the shaping of the First Amendment. Estep shows specifically how evangelical dissenters laid the groundwork necessary for the triumph of religious freedom in America — something that has often been ignored. This book includes an ample bibliography and an appendix of rarely seen documents pertaining to the struggle for religious liberty. A wide audience — including historians, students, ministers, and general readers across the religious spectrum — will appreciate this absorbing historical account.
