HOME AND HOMELAND

The Dialogics of Tribal and National Identities in Jordan

LINDA L. LAYNE

A READER ON CLASSICAL ISLAM

F.E. PETERS

CONFRONTING THE COSTS OF WAR

Military Power, State, and Society in Egypt and Israel

MICHAEL N. BARNETT

In this provocative examination of collective identity in Jordan, Linda Layne challenges long-held Western assumptions that Arabs belong to easily recognizable corporate social groups. Who is a "true" Jordanian? Who is a "true" Bedouin? These questions, according to Layne, are examples of a kind of pigeonholing that has distorted the reality of Jordanian national politics. She shows that the fluid social identities of Jordan emerge from an ongoing dialogue among tribespeople, members of the intelligentsia, Hashemite rulers, and Western social scientists.

"Layne achieves a new level of sophistication in the study of political processes in the Middle East. . . . The book will be accessible to a wide audience. . . ."—Dale F. Eickelman, author of Knowledge and Power in Morocco

Cloth: $29.95 ISBN 0-691-09478-0

F.E. Peters skillfully combines extensive passages from Islamic texts with a fascinating commentary of his own. In so doing, he presents a substantial body of literary evidence that will enable the reader to grasp the bases of Muslim faith and to get some sense of the breadth and depth of Islamic religious culture as a whole.

The voices recorded here are those of Muslims engaged in discourse with their God and with each other—historians, lawyers, mystics, and theologians, from the earliest Companions of the Prophet Muhammad down to Ibn Rushd or "Averroes," al-Nawawi, and Ibn Khaldun. By drawing on the works of the great masters, Peters enriches our understanding of the religious and political culture of Islam.

"Confronting the Costs of War is an impressive, challenging study which traces the link between war preparation and state power in Egypt and Israel. . . . This book is a very important contribution to Middle Eastern studies because it approaches existing literature from a broader theoretical perspective."

ISRAEL'S BORDER WARS, 1949-1956

Arab Infiltration, Israeli Retaliation, and the Countdown to the Suez War

BENNY MORRIS, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

This book looks at the development of Israeli-Arab relations from 1949 to 1956, focusing on Arab infiltration into Israel and Israeli retaliation. Benny Morris probes the types of Arab infiltration and the attitude of Arab governments towards the phenomenon, and traces the evolution of Israel's defensive and offensive responses. This pioneering study serves to deepen our understanding of the current situation in the Middle East and of the prospects for a lasting peace there.

FROM ABDULLAH TO HUSSEIN Jordan in Transition

ROBERT B. SATLOFF, *Washington
Institute for Near East Policy*

This book examines the most turbulent period in the history of Jordan's ruling house, the six years following the assassination of the kingdom's founder, Abdullah (1951-1957). Based on exclusive interviews and newly released archival resources, this book traces the only two royal successions in Jordanian history: the eleven-month reign of the little-known Talal, and the early years of King Hussein.

Contributions and Editorial Correspondence

Send article submissions to the Editorial Office (address on inside front cover). Articles submitted to the journal should not be, or have been, submitted elsewhere. Books for review should also be sent to the Editor for forwarding to the Book Review Editors. Unsolicited book reviews cannot be accepted for publication.

Manuscript Preparation and Style

General. An article must be in English, should not exceed 40 typewritten pages (including main text, notes, tables, and figure captions), and should be typed on 8½" × 11" or A4 white bond paper with ample margins on all sides. The entire manuscript—including notes, tables, and references—must be typed double-spaced and numbered consecutively. Title and author's name should be centered at the top of the first text page. Institutional affiliation and location should appear at the bottom of the last text page. The Editor may find it necessary to return manuscripts for reworking or retyping that do not conform to these requirements.

Text. Use a 5-character paragraph indent. Avoid hyphenating words at the end of lines. Do not use desk-top publishing features (e.g., right margin justification or bold and italic typefaces). Block indent long quotations (more than 50 words). Never cross-reference.

Endnotes and References. Notes must be numbered consecutively throughout the text, typed double-spaced in paragraph style, and grouped together as a unit following the text. Footnotes at the bottom of the text page are not permitted. Any acknowledgment of grant support, substantial assistance, etc., should be typed as an Author's Note above the first note. Provide the full name of the author as it appears on the publication. All titles in non-Roman alphabets (Arabic, Cyrillic, etc.) must be transliterated. Foreign titles in Roman alphabets should be capitalized as they would be in that particular language. An English translation of nonstandard language titles should be provided in parentheses after the title. The style of note citations should conform with the following examples:

<sup>2</sup>Jamil M. Abun-Nasr, A History of the Maghrib in the Islamic Period, 3rd ed. (New York: Cambridge University Press, 1987), 10.

<sup>5</sup>Clifford Geertz, "Toutes Directions: Reading the Signs in an Urban Sprawl," International Journal of Middle East Studies 21 (August 1989): 291–306.

When references to the same work follow without interruption use ibid. When notes to the same work follow after interruption, use the author's last name and a shortened title of the book or article. Do not use op. cit.:

As a less-preferred alternative, authors may use the social science method of citation. In the text, cite author and year in parentheses. In the reference section, provide the full citation:

author's full name, title, city of publication, publisher, and year. IJMES does not publish bibliographies.

Foreign Words and Transliteration. All Arabic words found in an unabridged dictionary (e.g., ulema, sheikh, qadi, Sunni, Shi'ī, mihrab, minbar, madrasa, masjid, jami', hadith, suq) should be treated as English words, that is, not underlined and without diacriticals. Contemporary names and places should be spelled as they are found in such standard publications as the New York Times. All other transliterated words and phrases should be underlined and all their diacriticals included throughout the text. Be sure to distinguish between the hamza, 'ayn, and the apostrophe in the text. No diacritical marks other than the hamza and the 'ayn should appear in any proper names (e.g., names of people, dynasties, places) and names of well-known literary works (Qur'an, Shah-nama), except: works written in Arabic, Persian, and Ottoman Turkish and cited in transliteration in the notes must include diacriticals for both author and title.

Transliteration System. All non-Roman alphabets must be transliterated, and authors are responsible for the consistency and accuracy of their transliterations. For Arabic and Persian, IJMES uses the modified Encyclopaedia of Islam system: qaf = q not k; jim = j not dj; roman double-letter equivalents are not underlined; the l of al- is not assimilated to the following consonant; ta marbuta is rendered a not ah; the adjectival -ya followed by ta marbuta is rendered -iyya. Except at the beginning of an English sentence or endnote, only proper names are capitalized. For Ottoman Turkish, use either the Encyclopaedia of Islam system or modern Turkish orthography. For treatment of common Turkish words, such as medrese, turbe, etc., follow the rules on anglicizing Arabic and Persian words.

Dates. IJMES does not use double dating. Use common era (A.D.) dates only, unless quoting from an original source, in which case use the date as quoted (hijra, solar, etc.) with the common-era equivalent in parentheses.

Tables and Figures. Tables and figures must be cited in the text, e.g., (see Table 1). They should be numbered consecutively in arabic numbers, captioned, and appear as a unit following the notes section. They cannot be interspersed in the text. Diagrams must be professionally rendered or computer generated; details should be large enough to remain legible at 50% reduction. Below-standard artwork will be returned to the author for replacement. All artwork must be numbered and labeled with the author's name and article title. For half-tones or other illustrations, consult the editor.

Publishing Information

Production. The publisher reserves the right to copyedit manuscripts to conform to the journal's style, which follows the rules found in the Chicago Manual of Style. Spelling will be edited to conform to American usage. More substantial editing will be returned to the author for approval before publication.

The lead author will receive one set of proofs for the correction of typographical or factual errors only. No rewriting will be allowed in the proof stage. Authors must return the material to the editorial office within 48 hours of receipt or approval will be assumed.

Offprints. The lead author of an article (but not book-review) will receive 50 free offprints of the article. Additional offprints may be purchased if ordered at the proof stage. Orders received after the issue is printed are subject to a 50% reprint surcharge.

Copyright and Originality. Submission of an article implies that it has not been simultaneously submitted or previously published elsewhere. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to publish any material under copyright. Contributors will be asked to assign their own copyright, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press.
