Preparing and submitting your manuscript

Before preparing your submission, please visit the Canadian Journal of Philosophy homepage at <http://www.tandfonline.com/rcjp> for full instructions for authors.

Papers for consideration should be submitted to the Editorial Assistant, Jason Poettcker, at: cjp@philosophy.ryerson.ca. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts electronically. Electronic submissions should be sent as email attachments using a standard program such as MS Word.

The CJP will normally not consider manuscripts exceeding 10,000 words, including notes. Manuscripts should be prepared for blind review, which means they should contain no self-identifying references in either text or footnotes. An abstract of 150 to 250 words should also be included.

Copyright

It is a condition of publication that all contributing authors grant to Canadian Journal of Philosophy the necessary rights to the copyright in all articles submitted to the Journal. Authors are required to sign an Article Publishing Agreement to facilitate this. This will ensure the widest dissemination and protection against copyright infringement of articles. The "article" is defined as comprising the final, definitive, and citable Version of Scholarly Record, and includes: (a) the accepted manuscript in its final and revised form, including the text, abstract, and all accompanying tables, illustrations, data; and (b) any supplementary material. Copyright policy is explained in detail at <http://journalauthors.tandf.co.uk/preparation/copyright.asp>.

Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.

Free article access

As corresponding author, you will receive free access to your article on Taylor & Francis Online. You will be given access to the My authored works section of Taylor & Francis Online, which shows you all your published articles. You can easily view, read, and download your published articles from there. In addition, if someone has cited your article, you will be able to see this information. We are committed to promoting and increasing the visibility of your article and have provided this guidance < <http://journalauthors.tandf.co.uk/beyondpublication/promotearticle.asp> > on how you can help.
