

the psychiatric bulletin

EDITORIALS

- 145 Stigma creating stigma: a vicious circle
Sokratis Dinos
- 148 Too similar, too different: the paradoxical dualism of psychiatric stigma
Tania Louise Gergel
- 152 The College reply to Francis misses the big question:
a commentary on OP92
John Cox, Alison Gray

ORIGINAL PAPERS

- 154 'Schizophrenia is a dirty word': service users' experiences of receiving a diagnosis of schizophrenia Lorna Howe, Anna Tickle, Ian Brown
- 159 Impact of work experience placements on school students' attitude towards mental illness
Vanathi Kennedy, Ravindra B. Belgamwar

REVIEW ARTICLE

- 164 School-based interventions targeting stigma of mental illness:
systematic review
Catriona Mellor

SPECIAL ARTICLE

- 172 Outcomes of care programme approach, dual diagnosis, carer support and psychological therapy inductions
Caroline Kamau

EDUCATION & TRAINING

- 175 The demonisation of psychiatrists in fiction (and why real psychiatrists might want to do something about it) Jacqueline Hopson

PERSPECTIVES

- 180 Bulletin comment: Openness, transparency and candour
- 180 Profile: Stigma and the psychiatrist – Julia Bland talks to Dinesh Bhugra
- 182 Personal experience: Diagnosis and dilemmas – what happens when we diagnose patients with the label 'schizophrenia' Mark Ellerby
- 185 Personal experience: Coming out – the psychotic psychiatrist – an account of the stigmatising experience of psychiatric illness
Aashish Tagore
- 189 Personal experience: Hopes and fears – the road to recovery
after psychotic illness
Aashish Tagore
- 191 Profile: James Davies
Neil Armstrong
- 194 Bulletin comment: Learned helplessness

COLUMNS

- 195 Correspondence
- 199 Obituary
Dr Patrick Lionel Grattan Gallwey, MBBS, DPM, FRCPsych
- 200 Reviews
Domestic Violence and Mental Health Working with Teenage Parents: Handbook of Theory and Practice for Practitioners Working with Pregnant Teenagers, Young Parents and Their Children

Cover image

This themed issue is devoted to the topic of psychiatric stigma.

Image © Guy Undrill 2014.