Ian W. Archer, University of Oxford, UK

Arthur Burns, King's College London, UK

The Royal Historical Society has published the highest quality scholarship in history for over 150 years. A subscription includes a substantial annual volume of the Society's Transactions, which presents wide-ranging reports from the front lines of historical research by both senior and younger scholars, and two volumes from the Camden Fifth Series, which makes available to a wider audience valuable primary sources that have hitherto been available only in manuscript form.

Modern Intellectual History

Editors

Charles Capper, Charles Capper

Duncan Kelly, University of Cambridge, UK

Anthony J. LaVopa, North Carolina State University, USA

Samuel Moyn, Columbia University, USA

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.

Journal of Global History

Published for London School of Economics and Political Science

Chief Editor

William Gervase Clarence-Smith, SOAS, London, UK

Editor

Kenneth Pomeranz, University of California, USA

Journal of Global History addresses the main problems of global change over time, together with the diverse histories of globalization. It also examines counter-currents to globalization, including those that have structured other spatial units. The journal seeks to transcend the dichotomy between 'the West and the rest', straddle traditional regional boundaries, relate material to cultural and political history, and overcome thematic fragmentation in historiography. The journal also acts as a forum for interdisciplinary conversations across a wide variety of social and natural sciences.

International Review of Social History

Published for the Internationaal Instituut voor
Sociale Geschiedenis

Editor

Aad Blok, *Internationaal Instituut voor Sociale Geschiedenis,
The Netherlands*

International Review of Social History is one of the leading journals in its field. Truly global in its scope, it focuses on research in social and labour history from a comparative and transnational perspective, both in the modern and in the early modern period, and across periods. The journal combines quality, depth and originality of its articles with an open eye for theoretical innovation and new insights and methods from within its field and from contiguous disciplines. Besides research articles, it features surveys of new themes and subject fields, a suggestions and debates section, review essays and book reviews. It is esteemed for its annotated bibliography of social history titles, and also publishes an annual supplement of specially commissioned essays on a current theme. The 2011 special issue will examine 'The Joy and Pain of Work: Global Attitudes and Valuations, 1500-1650'.

Contemporary European History

Editors

Josie McLellan, University of Bristol, UK

Neville Wylie, University of Nottingham, UK

Corresponding Editor for North America

Amir Weiner, Stanford University, USA

Associate Editor

Holger Nehring, University of Sheffield, UK

Contemporary European History covers the history of Eastern and Western Europe, including the United Kingdom, from 1918 to the present. By combining a wide geographical compass with a relatively short time span, the journal achieves both range and depth in its coverage. It is open to all forms of historical inquiry - including cultural, economic, international, political and social approaches - and welcomes comparative and transnational analysis. One issue per year explores a broad theme under the guidance of a guest editor. The 2009 issue will examine the historical turning point of '1989' from a Pan-European perspective. The journal regularly features contributions from scholars outside the Anglophone community and acts as a channel of communication between European historians throughout the continent and beyond it.

COPYING

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA. Organizations in the USA who are also registered with the C.C.C. may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of US Copyright law) subject to payment to C.C.C. of the per copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 0018-246x/11 $12.00. ISI Tear Sheet Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only. Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge University Press.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

- 1 The Historical Journal publishes articles on all aspects of history since the fifteenth century.
- 2 All contributions, correspondence, and books for review should be sent to: The Editors, The Historical Journal, Faculty of History, West Road, Cambridge CB3 9EF. The e-mail address is hj@hist.cam.ac.uk. Fax: +(0) 1223 335968. Please mark faxes "for editors of Historical Journal". Tel No: +44(0) 1223 335347.
- 3 Articles should not exceed 10,000 words and Communications 5,000 words in length. Historiographical reviews should not exceed 8,000 words. Contributions must follow the layout and stylistic conventions of The Historical Journal. Detailed Instructions for Contributors should be consulted at <http://journals.cambridge.org/hj>
- 4 Three paper copies of all submissions (articles, communications, review articles, historiographical reviews, single reviews) should initially be submitted. Two of the copies should be anonymous. Receipt of submissions will be acknowledged by email; and authors will then usually be asked to submit an electronic copy as an email attachment.
- 5 Submission of material will be taken to attest that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not at present being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.
- 6 The Journal is willing to consider unpublished articles submitted in languages other than English, and in such cases a short resumé (max. one page) in English should accompany the submission. Financial assistance may be offered by the Journal towards the costs of translation into English.
- 7 Figures must be submitted electronically, scanned at a minimum of 320 dpi and saved as either TIFF or EPS files; if you wish to compress them, use lossless compression software such as the LZW compression package. Illustrative material should be numbered as part of a sequence of figures. Figure captions are to be supplied on a separate sheet.
- 8 Contributors are responsible for obtaining permissions to reproduce all material for which they do not hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media, including electronic publication, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included.
- 9 The Editors endeavour to provide a decision on contributions within three months, and thereafter to publish those accepted within eighteen months. They reserve the right to change publication date at short notice, owing to space constraints and the need to achieve balance of content.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
