

Editorial

The main topic of Volume 3 (2002), Issue 3 of EBOR is international arbitration with particular relevance to business organizations. As such, this issue continues the previous issue (on financial market integration) in offering a collection of articles on a particular topic. While EBOR continues to solicit articles on all matters related to European business organization, the focus issues allow us to present to our readers an overview of the debate on a particular subject-matter. Vesna Lazic, member of EBOR editorial board, has conceptualized this issue and solicited the contributions for which I am very grateful.
